This memorandum of understanding made at Hoshiarpur between Farm's Produce Promotion Society, (Regd.)- FAPRO, Kang Mai, Hoshiarpur and Department of Agriculture, Khalsa College Garhdiwala, Hoshiarpur.

Farm's Produce Promotion Society, Kang Mai, Hoshiarpur

Farm's Produce Promotion Society (Regd.) - FAPRO is a venture of over 300 farmers. The society was formed with the collective effort of multiple Agriculture Technocrats in the year 2001. Today, considerate of humanitarian health & wellness FAPRO offers fine produce of farmer's, processed under stringent quality control, offering consumers fresh, pure & quality food products. There is a turmeric and honey processing plant to support the well-being of farmers.

Khalsa College Garhdiwala

Khalsa College Garhdiwala, commands special prestige among educational institutions in Hoshiarpur. Dr Mahinder Singh Randhawa (IAS), a visionary scholar, worked tirelessly for the foundation of this college. Following this, the college achieved glory under the blessings of honourable Mahant Sewa Dass ji, Headmaster Kartar Singh Bains and Sant Baba Fateh Singh ji. Aiming for the holistic development of the region and providing quality education for the rural folk, this college was first set up in the building of Khalsa Higher Secondary School on the pious occasion of the 300th birth anniversary of Guru Gobind Singh ji. The College proved to be a blessing to the area as this region was deprived of any premier institution for higher studies. Before Khalsa College Garhdiwala came onto existence, the students had to go to Hoshiarpur or other far-off places for higher education which eventually resulted in a high drop-out rate in the region. Starting with just B.A. and B.Sc. courses, Khalsa College came under the management of the Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee, Sri Amritsar in 1996, after which various new courses and subjects were added to the curriculum of the college. Today, around 50 teachers have been mentoring various disciplines including a Bachelor of Arts.

Science, Commerce, Computer Applications and Masters in Punjabi, Political Science, Commerce. Additionally, professional courses like Fashion Designing, Agriculture, Computer Science etc. are also available in this prestigious institution. It is a matter of great pride that the NAAC team of the University Grant Commission acknowledged the merits and credibility of the college and awarded an A-grade to the institute in 2016.

The college feels proud of its shining alumni who have been serving the nation on various influential posts. The college has been a front-runner not just in academics, but also in sports, religious and cultural activities also. Playgrounds for all types of games, Conference Hall, Science and Computer laboratories fitted with ultra-modern technology and various cultural activities being organized in the college provide an atmosphere for holistic development of the students.
